

IT TAKES A CITY. For this amendment cycle, the Office of Planning wanted to offer all stakeholders an equal opportunity to provide substantive input and take ownership of the amendments through a three-month “Open Call” process. This is what we heard and who participated in Open Call:

3,064 Proposed Amendments

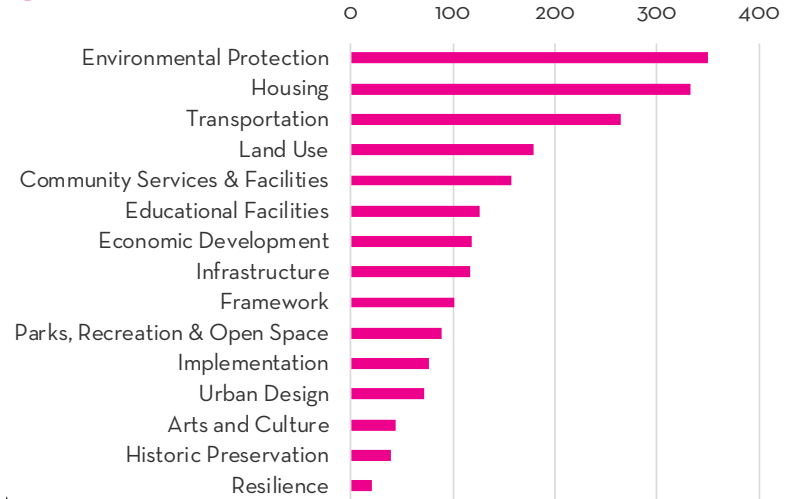

2,093 Proposed Text Amendments, submitted by Citywide Element

Who did we hear from?

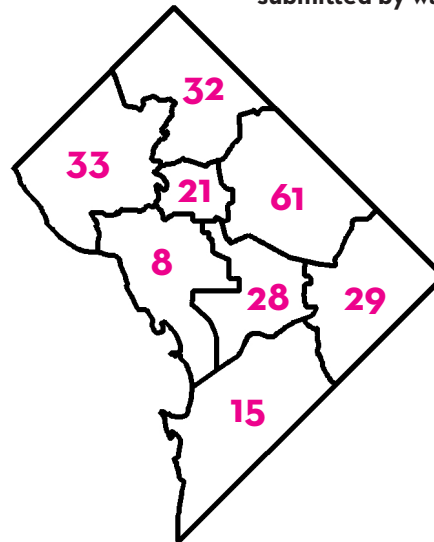

185 Individuals
106 Organizations

- 69 Community groups, non-profits, etc.
- 16 Advisory Neighborhood Commissions
- 6 Business Improvement Districts & Main Street Organizations
- 6 Law Firms
- 4 Public Utilities + Services
- 3 Universities
- 2 Federal Agencies
- +21 District Agencies

What topics and areas were of most interest?

248 Proposed Map Amendments, submitted by ward

723 Proposed Text Amendments, submitted by Area Element

learn more: planning.dc.gov email us: plandc@dc.gov
tweet: @OPinDC #planDC